

Your Friday Water Report

This Week's Topic:

Weekly Water Report

The Weekly Water Report is produced by the Utilities Project Management and Water Distribution Staff. It provides the reader with a weekly snapshot of water resources and current storage. The weekly Water Report covers Gallinas River Flow, Storage, Rainfall and Snowpack as they pertain to water resource availability for the City of Las Vegas Customers. The Weekly Water Report also provides you the customer information on 2015 usage and current usage to show where we were last year on gallons of usage per day. We the Staff of the City of Las Vegas would like to thank you our customers for your continued effort on conserving water. Keep an eye out for important information in your weekly water report.
