If accepted as an entertainer you and/or your group MUST agree to the following terms and conditions:

- Fourth of July Fiestas will issue payment to performer/entertainer following performance.
- Performers shall perform music and/or entertainment for a minimum of 85% of the scheduled duration of their performance. Idol talk and tuning of instruments does not constitute performance time.
- Performers and the members of group shall promote their performance at the Las Vegas Fiestas using social media (which may include but is not limited to Facebook, Instagram, Snapchat, etc.) and on their Website (if Performer has a website) of tour or performance dates if available. Promotion shall include Performance Date, Time, Historic Plaza Park, and Las Vegas Fourth of July Fiestas. While Performer is not required to promote their performance using paid media outlets it is acceptable and encouraged. Performer will have the ability to sell and autograph Performer merchandise following their performance.
- Performer(s) if requested by Fourth of July Fiestas or City of Las Vegas will record a brief sound bite for Fourth of July Fiestas to use in radio, TV or other ads to promote Las Vegas Fourth of July Fiestas and Performer's participation at Fiestas. Unless otherwise agreed Fourth of July Fiestas will record and absorb the cost of promotion and retains control of creative content of such recordation.
- Fourth of July Fiestas reserves the right to cancel any and all performances scheduled if it is in the best interest of the public. As such, performer shall dress appropriately and abstain from expressing profanity, be it in lyrics, behavior and dialogue
- Fourth of July Fiestas is an alcohol free event. Performers shall not consume alcohol on or near the Plaza prior to or during their scheduled performance. If the City of Las Vegas/or and Fourth of July Fiestas Work Group deems any performer to be intoxicated, said performer will be excluded from performance and remaining performers will be asked to fulfill their performance obligation.
- Should performer fail to appear for their scheduled performance, the performer shall be liable to the City of Las Vegas for the amount the performer would have been compensated as liquidated damages.
- Fourth of July Fiestas shall provide the performer with electricity and electrical hook-ups, a sound system complete with microphones, microphone stands, back line and front line equipment and drum set, which shall be used by all Performers requiring a drum set and shall be used for the entire duration of the Fiestas.
- The performer shall provide their own personal musical instruments and all cords and hook-up needed for personal instruments, back-up music as CD, drumsticks and any other items pertaining to their performance ability.
- The Fourth of July Fiestas and the sound equipment company have full discretion on use and operation of the sound equipment should wet, unsafe weather conditions, and/or potential damage to the equipment become a factor.
- The performer shall be held fully responsible for negligent damage to the equipment provided for use and shall be liable to the sound equipment company providing sound system and shall hold harmless the City of Las Vegas and City of Las Vegas Fourth of July Fiestas Work Group.

- Should inclement weather arise causing a disruption in the performance schedule, performers shall remain present and available for a rescheduled time and shall perform for duration of time indicated above.
- However, should the Fourth of July Fiestas deem that the performance cannot be rescheduled; the performer will be paid in full as if the performance actually took place.
- Performer will provide a cell phone number for any member who can and may be reached at any time during the 4th of July Fiestas should the need for rescheduling arise.
- Fourth of July Fiestas reserves the right to revise the entertainment schedule if the need should arise; and will notify the performer as soon as possible prior to the scheduled performance.
- It is hereby agreed and understood that the City of Las Vegas and the City of Las Vegas Fourth of July Fiestas Work Group are not responsible for any damage directly or indirectly caused to any personal equipment belonging to the performer, or any items lost or stolen.
- It is hereby agreed and understood that decisions of the City of Las Vegas and Fourth of July Fiestas Work Group are final.
- The City of Las Vegas reserves all rights to the Fourth of July Fiestas event, including the event performances.
- To those who apply, please remember to bring your own drumsticks.
